

T U E S D A Y, DECEMBER 24, 1771.

Charlestown, South-Carolina, December 23, 1771.

To the Friends of RELIGION, and Patrons of LIBERTY and useful KNOWLEDGE,

The Humble Representation and Address of WILLIAM SMITH,
D. D. Provost of the College and Academy of Philadelphia, in Behalf of that Seminary.

IN that immense Extent of Country, now possess'd by Great-Britain, from Florida Northwards to the Limits of Canada, it is impossible for an attentive Observer not to behold an EMPIRE already planted; which, with careful Culture, promises to enlarge itself to vast Dimensions, and to give Law as well as Happiness to every other Part of America.

In a Commercial View, it is needless to remark of what great and growing Importance these Colonies are, from their Length of Sea-Coast, Conveniences of Navigation, and Variety of Produce. From this Variety springs another Blessing, not known in an equal Degree perhaps to any other People upon Earth. We have the Staff of Life, BREAD in Abundance for ourselves, and to supply the Necessities of others; with hardly a Probability, under the Favor of Heaven (as the Experience of a Century past tells us) of ever suffering Scarcity or Want. The Climate too is, in general, favorable to all the Powers of Body and Mind; nursing up a Race of bold and hardy Men, with whom our feebler Neighbours, on the Southern Part of this Continent, would wage but ineffectual War. Should War, in Ages hence, continue to be the unchristian Mode of arbitrating the Differences of Christian Nations!

A Friend to Humanity, therefore, cannot but adore that Providence, which, when the New World was to be portioned out among the Kingdoms of the Old, called Great-Britain (a Nation enjoying Liberty, Religion and Science, in their purest and most improved State) to the Possession of that Part of America, which seems thus ordained to Preheminence and Empire over the Rest!

The Idea is truly animating; and a serious Mind will not consider the Growth of these Colonies, merely as tending to encrease the Wealth and Commerce of the World; but likewise in a more important View, as promising to enlarge the Sphere of PROTESTANTISM and HUMANITY. In this View, every British-American will look upon himself as a chosen Instrument in these latter Days, for supporting and promoting the Cause of LIBERTY, and all its concomitant Blessings in the New World, at a Time when decaying in the Old; and will accordingly rejoice to water the tender Plant that hath taken Root among us, and to rear and bring forth its Branches unto the Ocean, and its Branches to the utmost Rivers!

But, in carrying on this great Work, we are not to trust to the most successful Struggles against foreign Enemies, nor even to repeated domestic Struggles for native and political Rights. The Souls of Youth must be nurs'd up to the Love of Liberty, and their Bosoms warm'd with a sacred and enlightened Zeal for every Thing that can bless or dignify their Species. In short, lasting Provisions must be made, by good Education, for training up a Succession of Patriots, Lawgivers, Sages and Divines; for LIBERTY will not deign to dwell but where her fair Companion KNOWLEDGE flourishes by her Side; nor can Government be duly administered but where the Principles of Justice, Virtue, Sobriety, and Obedience, for Conscience Sake, are upheld.

Every well-regulated Seminary of Learning, therefore, in America, that promises to exalt the Genius of our Country, and to be the Means of diffusing useful Knowledge still wider and wider over this yet untutor'd Continent, will be an Object of general Regard, wheresoever it is; for, in this Respect, we have all but one great and common Interest to pursue. I hope, then, I may have Leave to mention the College and Academy of Philadelphia as one of the most important Institutions of this Kind. Situated in the very Centre of the British Colonies, in a City exemplary in its Police, abounding with every Necessary of Life at reasonable Rates, flourishing in Commerce and all the Mechanic Arts; this Seminary, from a Co-incidence of these and other fortunate Circumstances, tho' begun by private Men, and carried on by private Contributions, amidst the Tumults of an expensive War and the Jarrings of domestic Discord, hath in less than Twenty Years arrived to a Perfection, which many of the like Kind have not attained in whole Centuries, tho' founded by Sovereign Princes, and supported at national Expence.

Besides Professorships for the English, French and other modern Languages, with the practical Branches of Mathematics, in what is called the Academic Part of this Institution; the Collegiate Part hath a full Establishment of Schools and Professorships for the ancient Languages, Rhetoric, moral and natural Philosophy, Anatomy and Surgery, Chemistry and Natural History, Botany and Materia Medica, Theory and Practice of Physic, with Clinical Lectures in the provincial Hospital, &c. There is also a complete APPARATUS for Experimental Philosophy; some Parts of which, particularly the Electrical and Astronomical Apparatus, are not to be equall'd perhaps in any other Part of the World.

These Professorships are not nominal only, but actually filled with Men who truly discharge their Duty. Upwards of TWO HUNDRED Youths are constantly educated in the different Schools; besides Sixty Boys and Thirty Girls, on Charity; and the Execution of the Whole is superintended by Twenty-four TRUSTEES living within the City, who visit monthly, and think not the chief Offices of Government, which several of them fill, any Way interfered, by their descending from Time to Time, to examine the Progress of the Youth in Letters and Science!

It would be needless to mention, here, those Reasons (whether of Policy or Principle) which have hitherto prevented an Institution, so honourable to the Country where it subsists, from obtaining a provincial Support. The Time is probably not very remote, when it may be otherwise; but in the mean while, after being carried on for about twelve Years, at an Expence of more than Seven Thousand Pounds Sterling, raised † by private Means within the Province, and near Three Thousand Pounds Sterling Value, granted in Lands and Money, by the Honorable Proprietors, THOMAS and RICHARD PENN, Esqrs. the whole Undertaking must at last have sunk, if his MAJESTY, in his great Goodness, had not (together with a princely Benefaction) granted a Royal Brief, by Means of which, thro' the Generosity of the English Nation, upwards of SIX THOUSAND Pounds Sterling were raised, and added to our almost-exhausted Capital.

Although this Capital hath since been augmented by some Legacies, yet the yearly Revenue of the College, joined to the Money arising from the † Tuition of the Youth, falls near Two Hundred Pounds Short of the yearly Expence; and therefore to save our Stock from being again gradually exhausted, and with the Hopes of placing it at last upon a permanent Footing, one Effort more became necessary; in which we could only turn our Eyes to the Benevolence of the Friends of Learning and Mankind, in the neighbouring Colonies.

I trust, then, that our Application will not be in Vain to the Inhabitants of this Province—a People blest in general with plentiful Fortunes, and what is more, with Hearts so truly liberal and humane, that I have been well assured, wherever there is a Propriety in Giving, it is their Delight to give, and to manifest their Benevolence and public Spirit. From what hath been said, I hope the Design for which their Assistance is now solicited, will appear both proper and public-spirited. It is not for an obscure Seminary, it is not for a narrow or partial One that Aid is requested; but, I can say it without Ostentation, for a Seminary actually shining as one of the chief Lights of this New World, unexampled in its Catholicism, and placed in a City having frequent and easy Communication with this and the other Colonies. Those, therefore, who love to do Good and to lay Foundations for Posterity, will here find a proper Object. The Cause is a common One, and I know but this Argument that requires Notice; namely, that an Institution of the like Kind is intended and much wanted in this Province.

I wish Success to whatever may be design'd of this Nature here, which, I hope, may be forwarded, not retarded, by what is said in this Paper. If my Experience in Matters of Education could be rendered serviceable during my Stay in this Place, in perfecting the proposed Plan, it would give me real Pleasure; and I profess myself so much a Friend to the general Interest of Literature, that if the present Application could in the least interfere with that Interest here, it should never be urg'd further.

The Universities in Great-Britain, nay every great Town, and almost every Parish there, had the Interest of Learning to support among themselves, and had their own Schools to provide for; yet all of them cheerfully contributed towards the Support of the same Cause among their American Brethren, at the Time our Collection was made among them. In like Manner, the Mite that may be offered when the like Institution comes to be established among themselves; more especially as the general Weight of that Undertaking will be happily borne here, as it ought to be, by public and not private Expence. In the mean while, whatever may be thus generously given towards the keeping a neighbouring Light burning, will not be wholly lost, since the Rays of that Light may extend back hither, in the Benefit which it is hoped many of the Youth may derive, by an easy and cheap Opportunity of a liberal Education in a Place not very distant, till the like Opportunity can be had in the Place of their Nativity.

All I have to add is a perfect Assurance that every Contribution shall be faithfully accounted for, and the Names of the Contributors recorded among the Benefactors of the Institution, with Gratitude, to the latest Times.

WILLIAM SMITH.

† Every Student pays but Twelve Dollars per Annum for his Education and Firewood. His Board, Lodging and Washing in the College, seldom exceed £. 24 Pennsylvania Money, or Sixty-four Dollars per Annum.—The additional Expence of Books, Cloaths and Pocket-money may be more or less, according to the Directions and Restrictions under which Parents may be pleased to place their Children.

§ The Provost is of the Church of England. The Vice Provost and other Professors may always be, as they now are, of various different religious Persuasions, according as they may be found qualified for the different Offices.

L O N D O N, OCTOBER 3.

YESTERDAY General Johnson, Lieutenant-Governor of Minorca, who lately arrived in town from that place, was at Court, and had a long conference with the Ministry.

Tuesday some advices were received, by a special messenger, from Sir Joseph York, Ambassador at the Hague, which were sent to his Majesty at Richmond. And a Council was held at St. James's yesterday, said to be on account of the above advices.

The present contest for Lord Mayor, if carried in favour of Mr. Nash, will be entirely owing to the universal good character which that Gentleman bears with the Merchants and Traders of this City, the latter being the principal Electors.

Orders are given from the War-Office for all the officers belonging to the Regiments of Artillery now on duty in Ireland to join their respective corps with all expedition.

It is strongly reported at the west end of the town, that the Spaniards will join the Turks, if they have not already; and some go so far as to say, that the Russian fleet has been attacked and worsted by a Spanish Squadron.

The Dey of Algiers has, it is said, declared war against the Spaniards; in consequence of which, the garrison of Ceuta is filled with soldiers, and great preparations are now making at Ceuta and Tangier.

A rupture, it is positively asserted, must certainly take place between the Courts of Spain and Portugal, in consequence of an absolute refusal from the former Power to evacuate a territory near Buenos Ayres, which belonged to the latter some years ago.

The Emperor of Germany has lately sent over a fine side board of plate to General Paoli, in consequence, as it is said, of some very important offers, which the Corsican Hero has lately made to the Grand Duke of Tuscany, the Emperor's Brother, who it is asserted, casts a longing eye upon the valuable island the General was some time since obliged to abandon.

Extract of a Letter from the Hague, September 27.

"The last letters from Vienna observe, that the Emperor was not very well pleased with his journey to Hungary, the troops of the Imperial Army, encamped at Pest, not being in so good a condition as he expected. In short, they are greatly decreased by sickness and desertion, and it is thought, they will soon go into winter quarters. These letters add, that the answer made by the Court of Petersburg to the terms proposed by that of Vienna, relative to an accommodation between Russia and the Porte, is such as might be expected; the Empress of Russia contents, that the principalities of Moldavia and Valachia shall be under the dominion of a foreign Prince, who, though he is not named, is supposed to be the Duke of Saxe Teichen; and we flatter ourselves, that a Peace will soon be brought about between the powers above-mentioned, the Turks having, it is said, declared their readiness to concur in the salutary measures that have been proposed."

They write from Cadiz that the following ships are fitting out there, and are in great forwardness, viz. the Conception 74, Soberto 64, St. Rosa 46, Feucte 34, San Espridon 30, St. Francis 30, Anna Maria 28.

Monday Dr. Schomberg, Dr. Donald Monroe, Dr. Jebb, and Dr. Greeve, were admitted Fellows of the Royal College of Physicians.

OCTOBER 4. Yesterday there was a great Court and Drawing Room at St. James's, at which several of the Nobility, and most of the foreign Ministers were present; after breaking up of the Court, Lord North and the Earl of Suffolk had a long conference with his Majesty.

Yesterday there was a full Board of Admiralty, at which the Earl of Sandwich presided; when several Naval Officers that attended, received their Commissions, and several superannuated seamen were admitted to the Pension of Greenwich Hospital.

There is no time yet fixed for the return of the Earl of Harcourt on his embassy to the Court of France, neither are there the least preparations made for that purpose.

A Great Personage, at the Launch of the Grafton, recommended to the First Lord of the Admiralty that provision be made for the future for the Artificers, &c. in the Dock-Yards, in the time of Peace, to prevent them from going into foreign service.

It is reported, that some of the great Officers of State will go to Reading the beginning of next week to examine Britain (confined in the goal there) relative to the crimes he has lately charged himself and others with.

At the close of the Poll yesterday for Lord-Mayor, the numbers were,

For Mr. Alderman Nash,	1716
Mr. Alderman Sawbridge,	1245
Bras Crosby, Esq;	1143
Mr. Alderman Hallifax,	612

When the poll closed yesterday, Mr. Wilkes made the following speech:

Gentlemen,

My worthy colleague and myself intreat the favour of your assistance in preserving the public peace, which is the best security for the freedom of election, and the rights and privileges of the subject.

Notwithstanding this address, and though the Sheriffs took the precaution to precede him, surrounded by Constables, it was with no small difficulty Mr. Nash got to his chariot, in which he was accompanied home by the Sheriffs.

Yesterday morning, previous to the opening of the poll, the two Sheriffs waited upon the Lord-Mayor at the Mansion-house, and had a conference with his Lordship on the subject of proper measures to be taken for preventing the candidates being insulted in going to and returning from Guildhall.

Yesterday the Right Honourable the Lord-Mayor wrote a polite letter in answer to Mr. Alderman Nash's card, wherein his lordship assured him, that he would order all the Constables in the City to attend at Guildhall, to preserve the public peace, and to secure the freedom of Election, so that the Livery need not be under the least apprehension of being insulted in going to poll. Yesterday morning the two Sheriffs attended early in the neighbourhood of Guildhall, to prevent any disturbance or riotous proceedings among the populace.

Not one of the Candidates to be returned to the Court of Aldermen for the choice of a Lord-Mayor, but has expressed great satisfaction at the candid and impartial conduct of Messrs. Wilkes and Bull, who in discharging the duties of their office, have entirely kept clear of party attachment, and acted with confidence and uprightness, which ever distinguish men of liberal principles.

It is said that Lady Ligonier leads a life perfectly reclusive in France.

They write from the Island of Sky, that no less than 370 persons have lately embarked from that island, in order to settle in North-Carolina; several of them are people of property, who intend making purchases of land in America. The late great rise of the rents in the Western Islands of Scotland is said to be the reason of this emigration.

They write from Madrid, that the King has offered his pardon to all deserters, both by land and sea, who shall return to their colours in three months.

An Irish Gentleman of the name of Meighan, has lately been seized at Barcelona, and thrown into goal at that place for speaking contemptuously of the military powers of the Spaniards.

Extract of a Letter from Cadix, dated September 2.

"Every thing in this City bears the appearance of an immediate war. No fewer than eighteen ships of war including Chebecs, have sailed from this Port with men and ammunition for South-America within these six weeks. The City is filled with Soldiers, Marines, &c. Two additional battalions are ordered to be immediately raised to add to the old regiments of Matroses. A battalion of Walloon Guards, 1400 picked men from the Italian regiment, and 600 Swiss, are to embark in a few days on board a small fleet, which is now in the Harbour, and which is conjectured to be destined for the Spanish Settlements in the South Seas. The workmen in the Arsenal are continually employed in casting bomb shells, cannon, &c. The Court have increased the tax called Acabala (which is an impost of the 10th penny on all goods bought or exchanged) to seven additional pennies per Cent. In short, an immediate Rupture is looked upon as inevitable, but we English dare not even whisper our conjectures, for we are already treated by many of the Spaniards as if hostilities had already been commenced."

Accounts from Corunna confirm the particulars mentioned in the above letter, and further add, that great naval preparations are making at Carthagena, Ferrol, Malaga, and Barcelona.

Orders are gone down to all the Out-ports, for augmenting the crews of the Guardships to their middle complement.

* The Spaniards and Portuguese, of South America.

† Part of the Money was raised by Lotteries, which were afterwards prohibited by Law.

It is said ten ships of the line, and four frigates, are ordered to be victualled immediately with six months provisions, a full allowance, to proceed on foreign service.

The late disturbance in the North of Ireland by the people called Hearts of Steel, are now all happily ended, as it is said, from the prudent measures taken by Lord Townshend.

It is said that the present Lord Mayor is on the point of marriage to a Lady of great fortune.

OCTOBER 3. This day the Sheriffs made their return to the Court of Aldermen of two Gentlemen for their choice of one to serve the office of Lord Mayor for the year ensuing.

At half past one o'clock the Lord Mayor and Aldermen came upon the hustings, when the Common Serjeant declared Mr. Alderman Nash duly elected. The Lord Mayor Elected then addressed the Livery as follows:

"Gentlemen of the Livery,

"I beg leave to return you my thanks for the high honour you have conferred upon me, by choosing me your Chief Magistrate for the year ensuing.

"When I consider the dignity and importance of that exalted station, I cannot help reflecting how unequal I am to the great and arduous task.

"But, gentlemen, if a sacrifice of my private concerns, by a constant attendance on the duties of the office; if a strict and impartial administration of justice; if a watchful attention to the franchises, interests and property of my fellow-citizens can merit your esteem, you may be assured of my utmost endeavours to deserve it, and in which, as I have the example, so I hope I shall have the kind assistance of my brethren.

"Providence having crowned my industry with an independent fortune, I am determined to be an independent Magistrate, uninfluenced by any motives that may lead me from the public service to my own advantage.

"I cannot conclude without publicly acknowledging my obligations to my Lord Mayor and the Sheriffs, for their ready attention to the preservation of the peace, and the security of my person, in coming to, and going from, this place, during the poll."

His speech was received with bursts of applause.

It is said that the French and Spanish Ambassadors have declared, that their respective Courts have no intention of committing acts of hostility against the Russians, by assisting the Turks, but will observe a strict neutrality.

The motives for the Empress of Russia's dismissing Admiral Elphinstone from her service may be probably guessed at from the following anecdote, which is asserted to be a fact.

On the Admiral's appearing at Court, some little time before his dismissal, in the uniform of an English Captain, the Empress was heard to observe to some of her attendants, "That it was high time that man should quit her service who had thrown off her livery."

We hear that Lord Tyrwley's plan for establishing a military academy, is adopted, and will soon be carried into execution.

The Keeper of Reading goal opens all letters sent to Britain, previous to the delivery of them, by order of the Ministry. He declares, that had he succeeded in his attempt on the King's life, he was to have had 500l. per ann. from the Court of France.

OCTOBER 30. After the business at Guildhall was over on Tuesday, the Lord Mayor elected went to the Mansion-house in the state coach, with the present Lord Mayor, where a grand entertainment was provided, at which were the following Aldermen, viz. Sir Charles Agill, Stephenfon, Turner, Trecothick, Peers, Hallifax, Shakespeare, Eldsile, Kennet, Bird, Oliver, Sawbridge, and the two Sheriffs, the Common Serjeant, Town Clerk, &c.

Alderman Townshend did not dine on Tuesday at the Mansion-house; but Alderman Sawbridge did. In consequence some conversation passed between him and Mr. Wilkes; and in the course of it Mr. Wilkes declared that he would always inform nothing to the community; that, as long as he had an arm and a pen he would employ them in the cause of truth, and when his arm failed, he would learn to write with his toes; and therefore he desired them to look to their conduct, for he would spare none of them.

Monday Sir Charles Knowles, Bart. and ----- Elphinstone, Esq; late Admirals in the Empress of Russia's navy, arrived in town from Petersburg.

Lady Knowles and her daughters are now at the Court of Peterburgh, where they are distinguished by particular marks of the Imperial protection, and Sir Charles's return to this country is only upon matter of private business.

On Wednesday the 4th of Sept. last died at Naples, of a fever, the Right Hon. Frederick Lord Baltimore, Proprietary of the province of Maryland: By whose death, without issue, that ancient title is become extinct.

OCTOBER 12. Large wagers are now held that no war will take place between England and any other power these three years; therefore people in the country, who have property in the funds, should not be terrified at every news-paper report of a rupture, as the nation must be destroyed before the interest of their capitals can be annihilated.

On Thursday night an express arrived from Paris at the French Ambassador's house in Great George-street, that his Excellency Count de Guignes would be in town to-morrow; and preparations are making for his reception.

An extra messenger was dispatched Yesterday with a letter wrote by the King's own hand, to the Count de Guignes.

It is said, that the middle of last month, just after the arrival of the Count de Guignes at Paris, an express was sent of to the Spanish Court. The King of Spain was at his palace, about ten leagues from Madrid, when the express arrived, and though at seven o'clock in the evening, he set off for that place, where a council was held that night, and continued sitting till early in the morning. That the next morning orders were issued for a large body of infantry to march for Carthage, where it is supposed they were to have embarked, there being several men of war, besides transports, ready to sail at the shortest notice. And that about the same time, a squadron of six ships sailed from Cadiz, for the South Sea, with land forces on board, under the command of a Rear Admiral.

A correspondent assures us that the following is a fact. As soon as Capt. Scott's squadron had sailed from Spithead, a Spanish squadron of four ships of the line was dispatched from Cadiz in the same latitude to Madera, and afterwards to proceed to Hispaniola. Whether the court of Madrid had any sinister view in sending the above at that time, or whether they have dared to commit any fresh insults, time only will make known.

However we may be amused by the wiles or finesse of administration, it is confidently asserted, that Falkland's Islands are still a bone of contention between the British and Spanish crowns, and will, in the end, be productive of a rupture.

Orders are sent down to Portsmouth for six of the men of war now lying in the harbour, to be fitted out with all expedition; they are to be stationed at Spithead for their more speedy sailing on any emergency.

A letter received yesterday from Gibraltar mentions, that Sir Peter Dennis arrived there in the Trident the first of September, and that he was then preparing to proceed to Mahon.

It is said, that his Royal Highness the Bishop of Osnaburgh will accompany his brother the Prince of Wales on a month's visit to Paris, to see the winter diversions of that place.

DECEMBER 25. By the Gothic Lyon, Capt. Heltzer, a Swedish vessel, arrived at Hamburgh from Kola in Lapland, & we are advised, that, on the 31st of August, being then about 10 leagues N. E. of Cape Torne, they fell in with a large lugger, full of men of a very swarthy complexion with long beards, and clothed in the Eastern manner, with sugar-loaf capt. They made an attempt to come along-side, but as Capt. Heltzer had but eight hands, and two safes on board; and not knowing either their country, or intentions, he thought it most prudent to steer off. From this account, says the Utrecht Gazette, we imagine them to be Kamtschadians, or natives of the Northern parts of Asia, who had been driven thither by accident, and might be in want of provisions.

CHARLES-TOWN, DECEMBER 24.

CAPTAIN OBEAR, of the Brig Pitt-Packet, who arrived here on Tuesday last from St. Eustatia, about 80 Leagues to the Eastward of Charles-Town-Bar, met with a Schooner belonging to Mr. Richard Withers of Santee, in great distress, having her Main Boom and Main Sail over-board, three of the Boat Negroes Frost-bitten, and without Water: Captain Obear gave them all the Assistance in his Power, and took out of the Schooner two white Women, and their two Children, as also two Negroes.

Since our last Lewis Reeves, Esq; Augustus Johnston, Esq; Mr. Isaac Bourdeaux, Mr. Peter Smith, and some others, have returned here from the Northern Provinces.

Friday last the Ship Heart-of-Oak, Henry Gunn, Master, arrived here from London, in whom came Passengers, Arthur Neil, Esq; of West-Florida, and his Family.

We hear from Antigua, that on the 8th of October last, they had two violent Shocks of an Earthquake there; and that three Days after they had another Shock, but not so severe as the first. Two of his Majesty's Sloops of War, viz. the Favourite of 16 Guns, Capt. Biggs, and Falcon of 18, Capt. Baines, are arrived at English-Harbour; where the Portland and Active were shortly expected.

The General Assembly of Connecticut, at their last Session, appointed a Committee to return their Thanks to Dr. Johnson, late Agent for that Colony at the Court of Great-Britain; which has been accordingly done.
